

March 2022 Press Releases:

3/1/22- Officers responded to the Wawa for a theft of gas. A red Toyota with a Pennsylvania plate, driven by a white male with a white female passenger received $17 of gas. After receiving the gas, the male drove off after the attendant removed the nozzle.

3/3/22- Officers responded to the Brooklawn Food Mart for a report of a counterfeit bill. A white male wearing a black jacket, black beanie hat, dark pants, grey gloves, and a blue mask used the fake bill after asking for five $20 lottery tickets.

3/4/22- Tracy Scott Waldhelm, 50, of Camden was stopped for a violation while riding his bicycle in the area of the 500 block of New Broadway. During the course of the stop, Tracy was found to have multiple warrants for his arrest. Also in his possession was a crack pipe. He was placed under arrest and charged with possession of drug paraphernalia. He was released with new courts dates on his warrants and another court date for the possession charge.

3/5/22- Officers responded to the Westbrook Bowling Alley for a report of gunshots inside the bowling alley. Numerous agencies responded to the bowling alley, no victim was located at the scene. Officers did locate a spent shell casing from the gunshot. A short time later, a victim was identified at a nearby hospital with a gunshot wound to his leg. This investigation is ongoing. Anyone with information regarding the incident contact Brooklawn Police or the Camden County Prosecutors Office.

3/5/22- During the course of a pedestrian stop in the area of Rt. 130 and Browning Ln, Aaron Michael Collins, 30, of Woodstown was found to have warrants out for his arrest. He was also found to be in possession of 2 crack pipes, 2 purple vials, 1 orange vial, and 1 pink vial, all containing white residue inside. He was placed under arrest and charged with possession of drug paraphernalia. He was released with new court dates for his warrants and another court date for the possession charge.

3/6/22- Officers responded to the Wawa for a stolen motor vehicle. The owner left the doors unlocked and vehicle running while the driver went into the store. After reviewing surveillance video, a black male wearing a dark hoodie, jeans got into the vehicle and drove off making a right onto Browning Lane.

3/8/22- Officers responded to the Wells Fargo Bank for a bank robbery alarm. The suspect handed a bank teller a note demanding all the money and threatened her that he had a firearm. The suspect then fled on foot out of the bank. Numerous agencies responded and began searching the area. Gloucester City Officers located the suspect in the area of Bertwood Ave and Annwood Ave in Gloucester City. Philip F. Jones, 55, of Camden was taken into custody without incident. He was placed under arrest and charged with Robbery. He was remanded to the Camden County Jail.

3/9/22- Officers responded to the 100 block of 3rd Street for a vehicle burglary. The victim left her vehicle doors unlocked and sometime between 3/7-3/8 unknown actor(s) entered her vehicle and removed items. Anyone with information regarding this incident contact Brooklawn Police.

3/11/22- Officers responded to the Rite Aid for a shoplifting. A white male in his late 30s wearing a black beanie, white & black shirt, dark pants, and a dark colored face covering stole over $500 worth of merchandise from the store, by loading up a shopping cart and walking out the front door. He then got into a vehicle with Delaware plates.

3/11/22- Officers responded to the Brooklawn Shopping Center for a stolen motor vehicle. The driver stated he left his vehicle in the fire lane out front of the China House with the doors unlocked and the vehicle running. An unknown actor entered the vehicle and drove off with it.

3/14/22- Officers responded to the Wawa for a theft of gas. A black male, driving a blue Hyundai Santa Fe with a New Jersey plate received $34 of gas and drove off without paying.

3/15/22- Officers responded to the Wawa for a stolen motor vehicle. The driver left her doors unlocked and the vehicle running while she went into the store. An unknown actor got into the vehicle and drove off with it.

3/17/22- Officers responded to the Wawa for a report of an intoxicated male in the parking lot. Tymire La'Mar Johnson, 24, of Wenonah was heavily intoxicated and got into an unlocked vehicle that did not belong to him, and he didn't know whose vehicle it was. Johnson was placed under arrest and charged with criminal trespass. He was released pending a court date.

3/18/22- Officers responded to the Shoprite for a shoplifter in custody. Jason Daniel McCoy, 29, of Westville concealed over $200 worth of items in his pants and attempted to exit the store. He placed under arrest for this shoplifting, then police learned McCoy committed another shoplifting on 3/11 for stealing approximately $107. He was charged with two counts of shoplifting and remanded to the Camden County Jail.

3/18/22- Steven Robert Corsey, 57, of Blackwood was stopped for a motor vehicle violation on Rt. 130 North. During the course of the stop, the accused was found to be in possession of 4 heat sealed bags containing crack cocaine, 1 open heat-sealed bag containing a white residue, and a crack pipe. He was placed under arrest and charged with possession of CDS and possession of drug paraphernalia. He was released pending a court date.

3/18/22- Officers responded to Joe's 300 for an intoxicated male inside the bar. During the course of the incident the accused, Alfred Karl Jackson, 59, of Clayton became aggressive towards the employees and patrons and was arrested for disorderly conduct. He was processed and released with a municipal court date

3/21/22- Officers responded to the Dollar Tree for a male inside the store brandishing a knife at customers and employees. Numerous agencies responded to the scene. The suspect Matthew Tyler Hulme, 20, of Brooklawn was located in the rear of the shopping center and placed under arrest without incident. He was charged with unlaw possession of a weapon, possession of a weapon for unlawful purpose, and terroristic threats. He was remanded to the Camden County Jail.

3/22/22- Officers responded to the Rite Aid for a shoplifter who fled the store. The male was described as a white male wearing a dark colored jacket and camo pants. The accused was located inside the Shoprite attempting to shoplift more items from that store, by concealing them in his jacket. Tracy Scott Waldehelm, 50, of Camden was placed under arrest and was also found to be a wanted person out of Camden County Prosecutors Office. He was charged with two counts of shoplifting and remanded to the Camden County Jail.

3/23/22- Officers responded to the Rite Aid for a shoplifting. A white male wearing a black jacket, jeans and glasses stole over $230 worth of merchandise.

3/25/22- Officers responded to the Wawa for a stolen motor vehicle. The driver left the door unlocked with the vehicle still running and entered the store. Video surveillance showed the suspect approach the vehicle from the Rite-aid side of Wawa. A male in a gray sweatshirt enters the drivers side door and flees with the vehicle.

3/29/22- Michael Francis Widmeier, 45, of Audubon was stopped for a motor vehicle violation on Rt. 130 North. During the course of the stop, Widmeier was found to be a wanted person out of Delaware. He was placed under arrest and also found to be in possession of a bag of crystal meth, 8 suboxone films, and one metal pipe use to smoke crystal meth. He was charged with possession of drug paraphernalia and 2 counts of possession of CDS. He was remanded to the Camden County Jail.

3/30/22- Officers responded to the Rite Aid for a shoplifting in progress. Officers were unable to locate the suspect at that time. A brief time later, officers received a call about the shoplifting suspect in the area of the Wawa and Rite-aid. The male was located and while the officers were confirming the suspects identification, he fled on foot. The suspect ran down Madison Avenue and started to jump fences into backyards. After losing the suspect for a short period of time, he was finally apprehended in a Bellmawr residence backyard, inside a shed. Shaoquna Rishen Williams, 25, of Camden was charged with shoplifting, resisting arrest, criminal mischief (kicking and damaging processing desk) and hindering. While in custody, it was determined that Williams was the suspect of multiple vehicle thefts at the Wawa and shopping center in Brooklawn. He was also charged with 4 counts of motor vehicle theft. Williams also had a no-bail warrant out of Camden City. He was eventually remanded to the Camden County Jail.

Warrant Arrests:

Christopher Adam Hondros, 40, of Bellmawr

Serena Lee Hale, 41, of Blackwood

Joshua Michael Steen, 37, of Westville

IF ANYONE HAS ANY INFORMATION ABOUT THE ABOVE LISTED CRIMES, WE ASK THAT YOU CONTACT THE BROOKLAWN POLICE DEPARTMENT AT 856-456-0750 EXT. 110.

WE ALSO ASK THAT YOU PLEASE CHECK IN ON OUR FACEBOOK PAGE PERIODICALLY. WE POST PICTURES OF THE INDIVIDUALS AND/OR VEHICLES THAT ARE INVOLVED IN THESE OFFENSES AND ARE ALWAYS LOOKING FOR THE PUBLICS HELP IN IDENTIFYING THEM. TIPS CAN ALSO BE MADE ANONYMOUSLY AT 856-456-0750 EXT. 112.