

August 2022 Press Releases:

8/1- Officers responded to the Wawa for a shoplifting. A tall white male and a black female stole approximately $100.00 worth of Red Bull. The two fled in a Toyota Camry with a New York License Plate.

8/2- A bicycle was reported stolen on 8/1 from the 200 block of Paris Ave. An officer observed a white male on a bicycle matching the description of the stolen bicycle in the area of the 600 block of Browning Ln. Christopher Richard Potts, 34, of Gloucester City was stopped and found to have active warrants for his arrest. The bicycle was identified, by the victim, as the stolen bicycle. Potts was charged with Receiving Stolen Property.

8/6- An officer observed a female walking on the 600 block of Browning Ln, whom he knew had warrants for her arrest. Julie Amber Costello, 35, of Brooklawn was placed under arrest for numerous active warrants. She was also found to be in possession of one vial of crack cocaine, one empty vial with crack cocaine residue, and one crack pipe. Costello was charged with Possession of a Controlled Dangerous Substance and Possession of Drug Paraphernalia. She was released on her warrant and new charges.

8/6- Officers responded to the Empire Sports Bar for a fight. During the course of the investigation, a female began to act disorderly and obstruct the officer's investigation. Michelle Lea Glass, 34, of Franklinville was arrested and charged with Disorderly Conduct and Obstruction.

8/7- Robert Joseph Gopsill, 30, of Gloucester City was stopped in the area of the 700 block of Browning Ln for an active warrant. During the course of the arrest, he was found to be in possession of three (3) vials of suspected Fentanyl and three (3) empty vials. He was charged with Possession of a Controlled Dangerous Substance and Possession of Drug Paraphernalia.

8/8- Brooklawn Police were contacted by the property manager of the Brooklawn Shopping Center in reference to illegal dumping by a dumpster on the property. After reviewing video surveillance, a suspect was identified. Nicholas Thomas, 23, of Blackwood was issued a summons for illegal dumping in the Borough of Brooklawn.

8/8- Officers responded to the Rite Aid for a shoplifting. A white heavy-set female with blonde hair, wearing a white tee shirt and black yoga pants, placed numerous items totaling $156.00 into a shopping cart and exited the store without paying. She got into a black 4-door vehicle and fled in an unknown direction.

8/10- An officer stopped Denise Shelia Loeffler, 47, of Camden on her bicycle in the area of the 700 block of Rt. 130 for a bicycle violation. Loeffler attempted to flee from the officer after it was discovered that she had warrants for her arrest. She was quickly apprehended and placed under arrest. Loeffler was also found to have crystal meth and a glass pipe in her possession. She was charged with Possession of a Controlled Dangerous Substance, Possession of Drug Paraphernalia, and Resisting Arrest. She was also issued summonses for her bicycle violations and then released with all new court dates.

8/14- Officers responded to the Wawa for a shoplifting. Two suspects were located near the store. Michael Bryan Biernacki, 39, of Woodbury concealed items from Wawa and passed them off to his associate Robert J. Gopsill, 30, of Gloucester City. Michael was also found to be in possession of two (2) crack pipes. Both parties were placed under arrest and charged with Shoplifting. Biernacki was also charged with Possession of Drug Paraphernalia.

8/18- Officers responded to the Rite Aid for a report of shoplifting. A white male in his 30s with long hair, wearing dark clothing, a dark medical mask, and a tan hat used a hand basket and loaded it with items like batteries and air fresheners. He fled in a 4-door Nissan last seen on Rt. 130 North.

8/18- Officers responded to the Rite Aid for a report of shoplifting. An older white male wearing a red shirt and carrying a red Wawa bag fled the store on foot after placing items inside the bag. Gloucester City Officers stopped a male on Rt. 130 matching the shoplifter's description. Todd Thomas Williams, 59, of Gloucester City was found to have approximately $175.00 worth of stolen items inside the Wawa bag. He was placed under arrest and charged with Shoplifting.

8/18- Officers responded to the area of Haakon Road for a road rage incident. Officers spoke with the victim who stated that she was followed by a silver vehicle. When the vehicles stopped at the light at Rt. 130 and Browning, a male exited the passenger side and slashed her tire with a knife. He got back into the vehicle and drove away. The victim was able to provide a tag from the suspect's vehicle. Matthew Thomas Senkier, 36, of Williamstown was arrested and charged with Criminal Mischief and Possession of a Weapon for an Unlawful Purpose.

8/18- Wawa reported a theft of gas from a younger black male driving a silver Chrysler who received $48.35 worth of gas. The suspect stated he was going to pay inside and when the attendant walked away, he removed the nozzle and fled the store.

8/21- Officers responded to the Empire Sports Bar for a large fight. While officers were attempting to disburse the crowd, Angel M. Martinez, 38, of Camden decided not to comply with the officer's commands. He was placed under arrest and charged with Disorderly Conduct and Resisting Arrest. While on the scene, officers observed Luis G. Martinez, 35, of Camden strike a female in the forehead with a closed fist. Martinez was also placed under arrest and charged with Simple Assault and Disorderly Conduct.

8/22- Wawa reported a theft of gas. The suspect was driving a Jeep with a NJ Temporary Tag. The same vehicle had stolen gas from the Runnemede Wawa earlier in the week. The suspect was identified as Freddie N. Montrell-Nunez, 25, of Philadelphia and was mailed a summons for the theft.

8/23- Rite Aid reported a shoplifting. A white male in his 40s used an empty bag and placed approximately $115.00 worth of Tide Pods in the bag. He then exited the store and got into a blue Kia driven by a white female in her 30s.

8/26- Rite Aid reported a shoplifting. A light-skinned black male, bald, with a beard, in his mid-30s, black tee shirt, and black pants used a reusable bag to conceal approximately $74.00 worth of merchandise. The suspect got into a white SUV and fled in an unknown direction.

8/30- Officers were investigating a stolen scooter and located David Bruce Staley-Cattell, 42, of Brooklawn in possession of the scooter. Staley-Cattell was also found to have warrants out for his arrest from other jurisdictions. He was charged with Criminal Mischief, Criminal Trespass, and Theft. He was remanded to the Camden County Jail.
