

June 2022 Press Releases:

6/1- A male left his vehicle running with the keys in the ignition and went into Wawa. When the male exited the store, his vehicle was gone. An unknown actor entered the victim's vehicle and drove away with the vehicle.

6/1- Officers were dispatched to Rite Aid for a shoplifting. Two males; one black male was wearing a jean jacket with a furry collar and the other was wearing a dark jacket. The two suspects concealed $1,996.82 worth of over-the-counter medicine.

6/2- Officers were dispatched to Rite Aid for a shoplifting. A white male, wearing a black hoodie and blue jeans, with a white female, wearing a gray hoodie and gray leggings, used a red Wawa bag, and placed over $200 worth of skin/beauty items and electronics into the bag and left the store.

6/5- Officers responded to Wawa for a large group of people fighting. When officers arrived on the scene, there were two vehicles that were involved in a motor vehicle crash and both disabled. After speaking to witnesses and victims on the scene, it was determined that an intoxicated unknown black male began arguing with a group of other black males and a fight broke out between them. The intoxicated male then entered a vehicle at the gas pump, which was still running. The male put the vehicle in drive and accelerated away from the pumps towards the building, sending the group he was fighting with running away from him to avoid the traveling vehicle. The male ran the vehicle into another parked vehicle, belonging to the other group. The male then exited the vehicle he was driving and fled the scene on foot. This was captured on Wawa's video surveillance.

6/7- Officers responded to the Penske Parking Lot for two catalytic converters stolen from parked trucks that were in the lot. This occurred sometime between June 3rd – June 5th.

6/10- Cheryl Andino, 65, of Brooklawn was involved in a motor vehicle crash in the area of Browning Ln and Rt. 130. During the investigation, it was determined that Andino was under the influence of alcohol and/or drugs. Andino was placed under arrest and was brought back to police headquarters where she refused to provide breath samples. She was charged with assault by auto and driving while intoxicated.

6/12- Sometime overnight on 6/11, multiple vehicles that were left unlocked on the 300 block of New Jersey Rd were broken into. The suspect(s) rummaged through the vehicles taking loose change and other items from the vehicles.

6/12- An officer came across a stolen vehicle from Gloucester City located behind the Brooklawn Norse Apartments. The stolen vehicle had its catalytic converter cut from it.

6/13- Officers responded to Wawa for a shoplifting. A white male used a red reusable Wawa bag and concealed over $150.00 worth of Red Bull inside the bag. The male left in a U-Haul truck which was last seen on Rt. 130 North.

6/13- An unknown male used a rock and smashed the driver's side window of a truck that was parked in front of CSL Plasma. The actor entered the truck and removed tools and other items from inside the vehicle.

6/13- Officers responded to the Penske Parking Lot again for another catalytic converter that was cut from one of the trucks that was parked at the lot over the weekend.

6/13- Officers responded to Shoprite for a shoplifting. During the course of the investigation, Tyler Anthony Criniti, 28, of Bristol Pennsylvania was found to have concealed $829.00 worth of items from Shoprite. Tyler was also found to be a wanted person by the Camden County Sheriff's Department. He was placed under arrested and charged with shoplifting and remanded to the Camden County Jail.

6/17- Officers responded to a theft of gas at Wawa. Wawa was notified by two victims that their credit cards were used at the Brooklawn Wawa. One victim was from Texas and the other from Pennsylvania and neither has been to New Jersey recently with their vehicles. Video surveillance shows two black males in a black truck filling a fuel tank in the rear of the truck totaling $300.00 worth of gas using the stolen credit cards.

6/17- An officer was flagged down by a Wawa employee who stated that a silver car, driven by a Hispanic male, drove off without paying for $90.00 worth of gasoline. The vehicle pulled away with the pump still in the gas tank.

6/21- Officers responded to Wawa for a stolen motor vehicle. The driver of the vehicle left the door unlocked with the vehicle running and the keys in the ignition. Video surveillance shows a white male wearing a black sweatshirt, jeans, and a dark-colored hat enter the vehicle and drive away.

6/24- Officers were dispatched to Rite Aid for two females shoplifting. During the investigation, Rite Aid allowed the female to pay for the items instead of charging the female. Erica Larino Ramos, 26, of Camden was also found to be a wanted person out of the Camden County Prosecutor's Office. Ramos was placed under arrest and transported back to headquarters. Once at headquarters, Ramos was found to be in possession of a vial of cocaine. She was charged with possession of a controlled dangerous substance and she was remanded to the Camden County Jail.
