

January 2023 Press Releases:

1/1- Moddie Shields, 54, of Camden was stopped for a motor vehicle violation in the area of Rt. 130 and Browning Ln. Shields provided the officer with false information regarding his identity. He was arrested for hindering and found to have (3) three warrants for his arrest. Shields was charged with Hindering and released on his warrants with new court dates.

1/6- Christopher Richard Potts, 34, of Gloucester City was stopped on his bicycle on the 500 block of New Broadway. Potts obstructed the stop by failing to provide the officer with his date of birth. He was placed under arrest. Located on his person was a crack pipe. He was charged with Possession of Drug Paraphernalia and Obstruction. He was released with a municipal court date.

1/7- Officers were notified by Shoprite's Loss Prevention Officer that a male was in the store who had previously shoplifted and appeared to be shoplifting again. The suspect exited the store through the entrance doors with a cart full of items just as he had done on 12/13/22. Yasir S. Thomas, 44, of Camden was stopped as soon as he exited the store by officers and taken into custody. He was charged with (2) two counts of Shoplifting and released on a summons.

1/8- Officers responded to the Wawa for a theft of gas. A black Subaru with a New Jersey tag received $35.00 worth of gas. A rear passenger than got out of the vehicle and removed the nozzle and the vehicle left without paying the attendant.

1/11- A manager of the Wawa notified Brooklawn Police of an employee who was believed to be stealing from the store. During the course of the investigation, the suspect Lauren M. Barry, 37, of Bellmawr was observed on surveillance tape placing money into her pocket that was supposed to be placed into the register. Barry was charged with Theft and was mailed her summons.

1/17- Officers responded to the Wawa for a theft. A white male, wearing a black jacket and a black hat, filled a reusable bag with approximately $150.00 worth of Red Bull and fled the store in a tan or blue Kia 4-door that was last seen North on Rt. 130.

1/17- Officers responded to Rite Aid for a shoplifting. A black male, wearing a blue hoodie, stole approximately $334.00 worth of miscellaneous merchandise. He left in an unknown direction.

1/26- Officers responded to the Wawa for a shoplifting. A white male, wearing a gray hoodie, jeans, and red sneakers, concealed approximately $76.00 worth of various consumable items in his front hoodie pocket and fled the store. He was last seen walking toward the Rite Aid.

1/26- A package was taken off the doorstep of a residence of the 200 block of Browning Ln at approximately 1251hrs. The only view of the suspect from video surveillance was of the back of the person's head.

1/30- Officers responded to the Wawa for a report of a theft of gas. The gas attendant was able to provide an officer with the license plate of the suspect's vehicle. Through further investigation, the officer contacted the registered owner of the vehicle who stated that she thought another passenger in the vehicle paid for the gas. She was informed that the other passenger did not pay for the gas and she was given a day to pay the debt of the stolen gas. On 2/1/23 Dana L. Socha, 40, of Moorestown was charged with Theft. The summons was mailed to her address.
