

December 2022 Press Releases:

12/2- Officers responded to 2nd Street for a report of damage to a vehicle. Sometime between 10:30pm-12:15pm unknown actor(s) removed the vehicle's catalytic converter.

12/2- An officer observed a vehicle in the Rodeway Inn Parking Lot that was wanted in connection to multiple catalytic converter thefts that occurred in multiple jurisdictions. Those jurisdictions were contacted and, with the assistance of Westville Police, Cherry Hill Police, and Deptford Police, the suspects were located in a room at the Rodeway Inn. The (2) two suspects were taken into custody without incident. German Rodriguez, 38, of Camden and Jamilex Valentin, 26, of Camden were charged with Receiving Stolen Property, Possession of a Controlled Dangerous Substance, and Possession of Drug Paraphernalia out of Brooklawn. They were then transported to the other police departments to be charged and then remanded to the Camden County Jail.

12/5- Officers responded to the Penske Lot on Kings Highway for (3) three trucks that had their catalytic converters cut sometime over the weekend.

12/8- Officers responded to Rite Aid for a shoplifting. A white male in his 40s wearing a gray baseball hat and gray hoodie, with a blue overcoat, was putting items into a green reusable bag. The male fled the store on foot. Officers searched the area but were unable to locate the suspect.

12/8- Wawa called in a theft of gas. A black male in his 50s, driving a blue Ford F-150, received $92 worth of gas and fled the pumps without paying.

12/10- An officer observed a male sleeping outside of Ray Bets Liquor Store around 1:30 am. Patrick Ryan McCaffery, 36, of Gloucester City was found to have warrants for his arrest. Through further investigation, he was found to be in possession of (2) two empty heroin wax folds. He was placed under arrest and transported back to police headquarters. He was charged with Possession of Drug Paraphernalia and released with new court dates.

12/11- The Conoco Gas Station called for theft of gas. A white male in his 40s, driving a blue Dodge Ram 1500, received $60 worth of gas, and fled without paying.

12/14- Officers responded to Rite Aid for a shoplifting. A black female, wearing a navy-blue pullover, black leggings, and furry white slippers, was carrying a reusable shopping bag. The female placed numerous health and beauty items totaling $327.00 into the bag and fled the store. Officers were unable to locate the suspect.

12/17- Officers responded to Rite Aid for a shoplifting. A white male, wearing a black jacket and grey hat, placed $574.29 worth of merchandise into a Christmas bag and fled towards the Dunkin Donuts. Officers searched the area but were unable to locate the suspect.

12/19- Officers responded to Rite Aid for a shoplifting. A white male, wearing all-black clothes with a black mask, concealed over $80 worth of hygiene items. The male got into a blue KIA with a Delaware Tag and fled the area.

12/24- Officers responded to Wawa for a report of a stolen motor vehicle. The victim left the vehicle running with the doors unlocked and entered the store. When she came out, the vehicle was gone. Surveillance video shows a white male, wearing a grey jacket, dark pants, and dark colored hat. Shortly after the vehicle was entered stolen, The DRPA informed Brooklawn Police that they had the vehicle and the male driver under arrest for DWI. Jacob D. Joyce-Panzer, 27, of Chicago was charged with Theft of a Motor Vehicle and his summons was faxed to the DRPA and they served him.

12/26-Micheal Anthony Wilson, 35, of Woodbury was observed by an officer in front of Advanced Auto in the Brooklawn Shopping Center and was known to have active warrants for his arrest. After he was placed under arrest, he was found to be in possession of a crack pipe. He was charged with Possession of Drug Paraphernalia and turned over to Deptford Police Department on his outstanding warrant.
