

December 2023 Press Releases:

12/1- Alexis Centeno, 43, of Camden, was identified as the suspect of a shoplifting from November 29 at the Shoprite. Centeno concealed $407.79 worth of batteries in a reusable shopping bag and walked through an empty checkout line. Centeno was charged with shoplifting and was mailed a summons.

12/1- Officers responded to the Rite Aid for a shoplifting. A black female, approximately 30-40 years of age, wearing a black jacket, gray sweatshirt, and a mask, concealed $433.00 worth of deodorant in a reusable shopping bag and fled the store on foot. On 12/30, a suspect was identified in this shoplifting. Yasheka Khusana Dunmore, 45, of Philadelphia, was charged with the shoplifting, and a summons was mailed to her residence.

12/3- Police responded to the area of Maude Avenue for an unknown female attempting to enter vehicles parked on the street. Officers were unable to locate the suspect at the time of the call. Using video footage from cameras on Maude Avenue, a suspect was identified. Megan June Tareila, 32, of Woodbury, was contacted by police, and on 12/6, she turned herself in to Brooklawn Police. She was arrested and charged with two counts of Criminal Attempt (Burglary). She was released on a summons with a pending Superior Court Date.

12/4- Police responded to the parking lot of CSL Plasma for a bicycle that was stolen from outside the store. Using surveillance footage, officers were able to identify a suspect. On 1/6/24, Quasan T. Hill, 28, of Cherry Hill, was charged with Theft, and a summons was mailed to his residence.

12/5- Police responded to Rite Aid for a shoplifting. A black male wearing a blue shirt, white sneakers, blue sweatpants, and dyed blonde hair concealed hair products on his person, totaling $56.25. He fled the store on foot and got into a vehicle in the Wawa Parking Lot.

12/7- Police responded to the Wawa for a shoplifting. A white male in his mid-40s, wearing a black sweatshirt with bones all over the shirt, bought a pack of cigarettes and then stole two hot dogs and two vitamin waters from the store.

12/12- Shoprite Loss Prevention contacted police to report that on 12/11, a male had shoplifted $159.91 worth of merchandise. The male placed the items into a shopping cart and exited the store through the entrance doors. Using surveillance footage, a suspect was identified. Jason C. McCown, 38, of Burlington, was charged with shoplifting, and a summons was mailed to his residence.

12/13- Jason C. McCown, 38, of Burlington, attempted to shoplift again at the Shoprite by placing $449.68 worth of Ensure Drinks and again exiting through the entrance doors. This time, he was stopped by Shoprite Loss Prevention. McCown left the shopping cart, ran to a waiting vehicle, and fled the scene. He was mailed another shoplifting summons to his residence.

12/16- Police responded to Joe's 300 for a male who was intoxicated and causing a scene in the bowling alley and the bar. While attempting to deescalate the situation the male began to yell obscenities at patrons and the officers that were on scene. Cross F. Parker, 23, of Runnemede, was charged with disturbing the peace and issued a summons on scene. He was then transported to the hospital because of his level of intoxication.

12/18- Police responded to Rite Aid for a shoplifting. A white male in his late 20s, wearing a blue jacket, green colored jeans, black sneakers, a black baseball hat, and a beard, placed $126.91 worth of merchandise into a cart and exited the store without paying. The male got into a waiting vehicle and fled the scene prior to police arrival.

12/19- Police responded to Rite Aid for a white female in her 30s wearing all black clothing and red hair, who placed $472.92 worth of vitamins and thermometers into a Rite Aid Cart. She was stopped by the Rite Aid Loss Prevention in the vestibule and left all the proceeds. She left in an unknown white 4-door vehicle.

12/19- Police responded to Shoprite for a shoplifting. A white female loaded a shopping cart with numerous items totaling $244.68. She exited the store through the entrance doors, and then she went to a waiting vehicle parked in the fire lane. Officers approached the vehicle and the female before she could remove the items from the cart. Officers placed both the driver of the vehicle and the female under arrest. The vehicle was used in a shoplifting on 12/16, where a black female exited the store through the entrance doors with $446.82 worth of merchandise. Jamie Lynn Joseph, 39, of Gloucester City, was charged with shoplifting and released on a summons with Superior Court Date. The driver, Donald Adrian Hughes, 57, of Benton, PA, was charged with Conspiracy and Possession of Drug Paraphernalia after officers located two crack pipes on Hughes. Hughes was also released on a summons with a Superior Court Date.

12/20- Police responded to the Conoco Gas Station for a black male in a white SUV who left without paying for $64.00 worth of gas. The vehicle was last seen south on Rt. 130.

12/20- Police responded to Shoprite for a shoplifting. Two black females concealed $175.00 worth of merchandise in a reusable shopping bag and placed the bags into a cart. Further investigation, the two females were identified. Fatasha Linda Eel, 41, of Camden, and Rosetta Christina Parnell, 29, of Camden, turned themselves in to Brooklawn Police and were charged with shoplifting. They were both released on summonses.

12/23- Police responded to Wawa for a report of a stolen vehicle. The victim left the car running with the keys in the vehicle and the doors unlocked. Video surveillance shows three people entering the vehicle and driving off with it. The driver was a black male wearing a winter coat, black pants, and a mask. The other two were females. One was a black female dressed in all-black clothing, and the second female was white, possibly pregnant, wearing a gray Under Armor hoodie and a green vest.

12/27- While on patrol in the Rodeway Inn Parking Lot, an officer came across a stolen motor vehicle. Through further investigation, the suspect was located in a room at the motel. Kimberly A. Brandreth, 41, of National Park, was also found to be a wanted person out of the Gloucester County Prosecutor's Office. She was placed under arrest and remanded to the Camden County Jail.

12/28- Police responded to a motor vehicle crash at Rt. 130 and Browning Ln. The driver of the vehicle that caused the crash fled on foot. Numerous other agencies assisted with the search for the suspect. The female driver was apprehended and taken into custody. Kerstin N. McGowan, 34, of Swedesboro, was found to be a wanted person out of Pennsylvania. Inside the vehicle, officers located a bag of crystal meth, a wax fold containing heroin, four crack pipes, and a needle containing suspected heroin.
