

November 2023 Press Releases:

11/1- Officers responded to Shoprite for a shoplifting. A white male, wearing a black jacket, concealed items totaling $38.97. The suspect then fled the store in an older model Oldsmobile. On 12/6, the suspect was positively identified as James Thompson, 52, of Carneys Point. He was charged with shoplifting and mailed a summons.

11/8- Shoprite Loss Prevention reported that on two separate dates in October, an unknown black male and white female shoplifted from the store by placing certain items into reusable shopping bags using the self-checkout lane to pay for some items in their cart while concealing the bags with items they did not pay for. The total for the two incidents was approximately $153.00. The two suspects were identified and charged. Gianna Katherine Bruzzese, 26, of Sewell, and Allen Malik Warren, 26, of Sewell, were charged with (2) two counts each of Shoplifting, and the summonses were mailed to the residence.

11/10- Officers responded to the Shoprite for a black female who had fled the store on foot after loss prevention approached her for shoplifting from the store. The female left the items, totaling $91.00, but did not get far. Officers located her at the T-Mobile Store and placed her under arrest. Alicia Michele Hamilton, 37, of Camden, was charged with Shoplifting and released on a summons.

11/11-Officers responded to the Rodeway Inn for a report of a stolen motor vehicle. The victim stated he let a female "friend" borrow his truck, but she never returned. After entering the vehicle stolen, an officer took a ride into Camden City to try and locate the vehicle, which he did with the female still in possession of the vehicle. The male did not wish to pursue charges at this time. However, the female was found to be in possession of a vial of heroin. Joyce Christine Neubaum, 35, of Woodbury, was placed under arrest and charged with Possession of CDS. She was released on a summons.

11/12- A Rite Aid Employee called police headquarters and reported approximately 30 minutes ago, a shoplifting occurred by a white male in his late 30s/early 40s wearing a black baseball hat, gray hoodie, and blue jeans. He used a reusable shopping bag and concealed approximately $147.00 of merchandise. The male left on foot, last seen walking toward Shoprite.

11/15- Officers responded to the Wawa for a theft of gas. A younger black male with braids down to his shoulders asked the attendant to fill up his gas tank and stated he was paying with cash. After receiving the gas, $53.00, the male exited his vehicle, removed the nozzle from the tank, and drove away. The attendant provided the officer with the license plate of the vehicle. A suspect was identified; Karonn A. Brown, 18, of Camden, was charged with Theft, and the summons was mailed to his residence.

11/18- Officers responded to the Wawa for a theft of $57.00 of gas. A black male in his 20s driving a white Nissan with a NJ Tag received $57.00 worth of gas and stated he would pay with cash. The male exited the vehicle, removed the nozzle, and drove away without paying. The investigation is ongoing.

11/18- Officers responded to the area of Rt. 130 and Old Salem Pike for a male asleep at the wheel. Through further investigation, Terrell Dashon Davis, 41, of Camden, was arrested for driving while intoxicated. Once at headquarters, his BAC was 0.14%. He was charged with DWI and issued other motor vehicle violations. He was released to a sober adult.

11/18- Shoprite called the police to report a female on location who had previously shoplifted from there and was no longer allowed on the premises. Patricia A. Reider, 60, of Mount Ephraim, left the area prior to police arrival. Officers were shown the surveillance footage of Reider inside the store. She was charged with defiant trespass, and the summons was mailed to her residence.

11/19- Shoprite called the police to report a shoplifting. A white male in his 40s or 50s, wearing a blue zip-up hoodie, dark pants, and a beard, concealed items in reusable shopping bags totaling $267.00. The male placed the bag under the cart, paid for a drink, and left the store. He was last seen in a silver 4-door sedan towards Browning Lane.

11/19- An officer was flagged down in Wawa by a driver who stated that an unknown person pulled on his passenger-side car door handle in an attempt to get into his vehicle while he was at the intersection of Rt. 130 and Browning Ln. The male then fled across Rt. 130 once he could not get into the car. Officers located the male in the Gaetano's Parking Lot and ordered the male to stop walking. The male ignored the officer's commands and began walking to the Carnival Parking Lot, where he was eventually stopped and placed into handcuffs for both his and the officer's safety. The officers were familiar with the male, who was identified as James R. Dorton, 38, of Bellmawr, for using PCP. Dorton was placed into an ambulance due to his level of intoxication. He was issued summonses for jaywalking and disturbing the peace.

11/21- Officers responded to the Wawa Parking Lot for a stolen motor vehicle. The victim left his vehicle running with the keys inside and the doors unlocked. The surveillance footage showed one black male, one black female, and one white female entering the unlocked door and speeding off with the vehicle. It was last seen traveling on Rt. 130 North.

11/24- Officers responded to the Rodeway Inn for two juveniles left alone inside the room. The juveniles were transported to police headquarters and turned over to DCP&P. The mother of the juveniles returned to the room several hours later. Natasha Lee Malave, 29, of Mount Ephraim, was placed under arrest and charged with two counts of endangering the welfare of a child. She was released on a summons.

11/27- Officers responded to the Wawa for a theft of $102.00 worth of gas. Through the officer's investigation, a suspect was identified. Antonio Lugo 3rd, 22, of Clementon, was found to be operating the truck. He was charged with theft and mailed a summons to his residence.

11/28- Officers responded to the Rodeway Inn Parking Lot for a red sedan occupied by two black males who had allegedly flashed a handgun at the caller. The two males were detained by police but, no weapon was found. During the investigation, Fedrick Douglas Bryant, 49, of Philadelphia, was found to be in possession of copper mesh and a crack pipe. He was placed under arrest and charged with possession of drug paraphernalia. He was released on a summons.
