

April 2024 Press Releases:

4/4- Sometime overnight, an unknown actor(s) cut the lock off the fence of the PSE&G Plant. The actors also cut the lock on the trailer inside the lot. Nothing was reported to be missing at this time.

4/5- An officer stopped a male at Kings Hwy and Browning Ln for failure to use the crosswalk. During the course of the pedestrian stop, the male was found to have an active warrant for his arrest. The officer located four (4) vials of crystal meth, two (2) crack pipes, and three (3) empty glassine bags used to contain narcotics. Jonathan David Hart, 39, of Gloucester City, was placed under arrest. He was charged with Possession of CDS and Possession of Drug Paraphernalia. His charges were placed on a summons, and he was released with all new court dates.

4/6- Officers observed a female on the Wawa Property who had been banned from being on. Jasmine R. Prince, 33, of Voorhees, was detained and issued a borough ordinance for disturbing the peace and released on scene.

4/7- Officers responded to Rite Aid for a shoplifting. A white male in his 30s with a beard, wearing a black Eagles Jersey and blue jeans, entered the store with two white females also in their 30s. The employee at Rite Aid did not get a good clothing description of the females. The three carried out three (3) baskets of items totaling over $200.00 worth of merchandise. They got into a Ford Taurus and fled the scene in an unknown direction.

4/8- Officers responded to Shoprite for a black male and female who loaded up two (2) shopping carts and were walking out of the store. The Loss Prevention Officer approached the pair, who ditched the carts and fled on foot in separate directions. A Westville Officer located the male still in the shopping center, and he was placed under arrest. The male was identified as Lacy Nicholas Morris, 57, of Camden, who was also a wanted person out of both Camden and Gloucester County Sheriffs Department. Morris was charged with shoplifting and remanded to the Camden County Jail. The female has yet to be identified.

4/10- A black male in his 30s with short hair, a beard, black pants, and a white shirt, driving a silver Audi with a stolen Pennsylvania License Plate, pumped $21 worth of gas into his vehicle at the Conoco Gas Station and left without paying.

4/10- Officers ran a license plate in the area of Browning Ln and Kings Hwy that came back to a stolen motor vehicle. The officers attempted to make a felony car stop on the vehicle. The vehicle pulled over on Junior Ave in Bellmawr for a few seconds and then fled the stop. Officers lost the vehicle on Rt. 42. A pick-up and hold was broadcasted for the vehicle.

4/12- Officers responded to Shoprite for a white male who loaded a shopping cart and exited the store through the entrance doors. An employee was able to take a picture of the vehicle's license plate, which the suspect went into and drove off in. Officers responded to the registered owner's house, and the vehicle was in the driveway. Officers attempted to contact anyone in the residence but were unsuccessful. The suspect was identified as Sean Pavlichko, 37, of Westville.

Pavlichko was arrested for a similar shoplifting in July of 2023 at the same store and was charged with a 3rd degree Shoplifting and Defiant Trespass; his charges were placed on a summons and mailed to his address.

4/13- Officers responded to a fight call at the Empire Sports bar. Numerous other agencies assisted on the call. While on scene, officers observed a male throw a punch at another male. Jayden Ruben Ortiz, 23, of Philadelphia, was placed under arrest. Ortiz was found to have an active warrant for his arrest. Another male was acting in a disorderly fashion. He was told he was under arrest and resisted the officer from placing him in handcuffs. Jermeal Curtis Walker, 36, of Williamstown, was brought to the ground and placed in handcuffs. Ortiz was charged with Violent Behavior-Disorderly Conduct, and Simple Assault. Walker was charged with Improper Behavior-Disorderly Conduct and Resisting Arrest. Both were released on summonses.

4/13- Officers responded to the Shoprite for a female shoplifting. Both Loss Prevention and the Officer observed the female placing items into a reusable shopping bag and then placing other items on top of the bag. The suspect then used the self-checkout lane and only scanned the items she did not place into the reusable bags. Lisa Marcey Troutman, 54, of Pine Hill, was placed under arrest and charged with shoplifting and released on a summons.

4/15- Officers responded to Shoprite for a female shoplifting. Stephanie Stone, 40, of Westville, concealed $37.82 worth of merchandise on her person. Stone was placed under arrest and charged with shoplifting; she was released on a summons.

4/20- Officers responded to Wawa for a shoplifting. Christina Lauren Randazzo, 37, of Glassboro, concealed items in a reusable shopping bag. Randazzo had been banned from the property from an earlier incident. She was also found to have an empty wax fold, which is used to package heroin, in her possession. She was placed under arrest and charged with Possession of Drug Paraphernalia, Shoplifting, and Defiant Trespass. She was released on a summons.

4/25- Officers responded to Wawa for shoplifting. A black male in his 40s wearing a grey long-sleeved shirt and a backpack placed two (2) boxes of candy into the backpack valued at $180.00. The male got into the rear seat of a grey Hyundai Sonata and left on Rt. 130 North.

4/25- Officers responded to Rite Aid for a shoplifting. A black male in his 30s, wearing a baseball-style hat and white tee shirt with a beard, used a gift bag from the store and filled it with items from the "As Seen on TV" shelf, totaling $128.00. The male got into a silver Honda 4-door with PA Tags, which came back stolen.

4/28- Officers responded to the area of Rt. 130 and Old Salem Pike for a suspicious male with a hammer in his hand. The male damaged the traffic light at the intersection, telling officers that he believed there were C4 explosives inside the traffic pole. Jared Edward Sloane, 32, of Westville, was placed under arrest. Sloane was also a wanted person out of Gloucester County Sheriff's Department. He was taken to the hospital for further evaluation and then turned over to the Gloucester County Sheriffs to be remanded to the Salem County Jail.
