

June 2024 Press Release:

6/1- Officers responded to the 100 block of Browning Ln for a report of an intoxicated person. While interacting with the intoxicated male, Donnell Anthony Mathes, 58, of Bellmawr, was found to be a wanted person out of the Camden County Prosecutor's Office. Mathes was also found to be in possession of six (6) Suboxone Films, two (2) small zip-lock bags of cocaine, empty wax folds, and a crack pipe. Mathes was charged with two (2) counts of Possession of CDS and Possession of Drug Paraphernalia. He was remanded to the Camden County Jail.

6/3- Officers responded to Shoprite for a shoplifter in custody. Denise Lynn Emerson, 62, of Westville, used the self-checkout lane and only scanned half of the items in her cart. She concealed over $200.00 worth of merchandise under reusable shopping bags and attempted to exit the store. Emerson was also found to be in possession of two (2) empty vials, a small empty heat-sealed bag, both commonly used to package crack cocaine. She was placed under arrest, transported to police headquarters, and charged with Shoplifting and Possession of Drug Paraphernalia. She was released on a summons.

6/4- Officers responded to the Petco for a disturbance inside the store. The suspect fled the store, went into Planet Fitness, and locked himself in a bathroom stall. Officers eventually talked the male out of the stall, and he was placed under arrest after he was found to have a warrant out for his arrest. Francis Joseph Paradise III, 34, of Blackwood, was transported back to police headquarters charged with Disturbing the Peace and released on a summons.

6/8- Officers responded to Shoprite for a shoplifting. A female used the self-checkout lane and only scanned some items in her cart, concealing the other items under reusable shopping bags. The total value of the stolen items is approximately $120.07. Paula M. Santana, 32, of Moorestown, was placed under arrest, transported to headquarters, charged with Shoplifting, and released on a summons.

6/9-Officers received a tip that the suspect we were looking for regarding bicycle thefts in the area was at the Rodeway Inn. Morrie Halloway, 42, of Barrington, was located at the motel. He was found to be a wanted person out of Camden County Sheriff's Department. He was placed under arrest and found to be in possession of two (2) small bags of crystal meth and one (1) pipe used to smoke crystal meth. He was charged with Possession of CDS, Possession of Drug Paraphernalia, and Theft from the incident on 6/7/24 in which he was the suspect for the bicycle theft. He was remanded to the Camden County Jail.

6/9- Officers responded to the Petco for a shoplifting. A black male wearing camo pants, dark-colored shirt, and tan work boots loaded a shopping cart with approximately $800.00 worth of dog food and fled the area in a rental box truck. A pick-up and hold was broadcasted for the box truck, and a few hours later, a Camden County Metro Officer located the truck in Camden and stopped the vehicle. Brooklawn Officers responded to the scene and placed the driver under arrest. The driver was charged with shoplifting but provided the officer with another male's information and was released on a summons. The real identity was obtained and then confirmed as Edward S. Borden, 42, of Palmyra. Borden was charged with Shoplifting and Hindering. The summons was mailed to his last known address.

6/10- A white 4-door sedan received $45.00 worth of gasoline at the Conoco Gas Station and pulled away without paying. The vehicle was occupied by four (4) black males and was last seen south on Rt. 130.

6/12- Officers responded to Shoprite for two (2) shoplifters in custody. Anne Theresa Piersa, 60, of Deptford, and Stacey Ann Gray, 58, of Deptford, both used the self-checkout lane and concealed items underneath reusable bags and other items in her cart, which were paid for. Both parties were placed under arrest and transported to police headquarters, where they were charged with Shoplifting and released on summonses.

6/16- Officers responded to Shoprite for a shoplifting. Aiyanna T. Walker, 30, of Camden, concealed items in a reusable shopping bag and attempted to exit the store after paying for other items in her cart. She was charged with Shoplifting and Disorderly Conduct, which were mailed to her last known address.

6/17- A shoplifting occurred at Wawa; a black male in his 30s wearing a white tank top and jean shorts concealed approximately $30.00 worth of merchandise. The male was observed at Wawa the next night, 6/18, and officers were called to the location. Robert C. Smith, 37, of Williamstown, was placed under arrest. Smith was also found to be in possession of crystal meth. Smith was charged with two (2) counts of Shoplifting from another incident at Wawa and Possession of CDS. He was released on a summons.

6/19- Wawa called about a white male wearing a grey hat, black tank top, black sweatpants, and white shoes stole fifteen (15) Monster Energy Drinks with a reusable Walmart Bag. He was last seen towards Rt. 130 North.

6/19- Officers responded to a shoplifting at Shoprite. Brittany Nicole Dardi, 38, of Sicklerville, was observed placing merchandise from Shoprite into her purse. She was placed under arrest and found to have numerous outstanding warrants. Dardi was charged with Shoplifting and released on a summons with all new court dates for her warrants.

6/19- Rite Aid called about a white female wearing a red Chicago Bulls Sweater, shorts, and a tattoo on her leg of the Italian Flag with the State of New Jersey. The female fled the store in a white 4-door vehicle towards Kings Hwy.

6/19- Officers responded to Wawa for a male waving a knife around inside the store. Once on location, the suspect was instructed by officers to drop the knife, which he did. The male was then placed into handcuffs for everyone's safety. The knife was a metal cake-cutting style knife; it was secured by police and logged as evidence. The male was identified as William Glen Heath, 63, of Glassboro. He was placed under arrest and transported to headquarters. A zip-lock bag containing crystal meth was located on the male. He was charged with possession of CDS, Possession of a Weapon for Unlawful Purpose, and Disorderly Conduct. He was released on a summons for all of the charges.

6/23- Officers responded to Wawa for a shoplifting and, while on the call, were dispatched to Domino's for a theft of a motor vehicle. The suspect from the Wawa shoplifting fled the store on foot prior to police arrival; he observed a vehicle left running by a Domino's delivery driver. The suspect opened the unlocked door of the running motor vehicle and drove away. A pick-up and hold was broadcasted for the stolen vehicle.

6/24- Officers responded to Shoprite for a shoplifting. Fanny Elena Nunez, 73, of Bellmawr, concealed approximately $40.00 worth of merchandise and attempted to exit the store. Nunez was placed under arrest, transported to headquarters, and charged with Shoplifting. She was released on a summons.

6/26- Officers responded to Shoprite for a shoplifter in custody. Ashli Mar Johnson, 33, of Camden, concealed items under reusable shopping bags. She was also found to have an active warrant for her arrest. Johnson was placed under arrest, transported back to headquarters, charged with Shoplifting, and released on a summons with a new court date for her warrant.

6/28- An officer observed two people sleeping in the gazebo at Memorial Park. David B. Chamberlain, 40, of Bellmawr, and Michelle L. Hird-Mariner, 43, of Gloucester City, were both issued Boro Ordinances for being in the park after hours. They were released on scene.

6/29- Jeffrey James Laskey, 35, of Gloucester City, was stopped for a bicycle infraction. Laskey had numerous warrants for his arrest. He was placed under arrest, and he was found to be in possession of two (2) crack pipes, copper wire mesh, a push rod, and numerous empty vials. He was transported to headquarters, charged with Possession of Drug Paraphernalia, and released on a summons.

6/29- Officers responded to Shoprite for a shoplifter in custody. Scott Patrick Hale, 69, of Haddon Heights, concealed over $300.00 worth of merchandise today at Shoprite. Shoprite Loss Prevention also had numerous other dates where Hale shoplifted. They are June 7, 14, 16, 20, 24, and the 29th. The total amount stolen was $1,168.00. All dates were charged under one (1) Shoplifting charge and he was released on a summons.
